

Noom Diabetes Prevention Program

available through Noom: Weight Management

Achieve sustainable weight loss, make healthier habits, and reduce diabetes risk — all backed by science.

Did you know that 8 in 10 U.S. adults do not know that they are living with prediabetes?¹

Find out if you're one of them.

- Noom Diabetes Prevention Program (DPP) is part of your preventive schedule and available to you at no additional cost.
- Noom DPP is designed for adults with prediabetes or those at risk for type 2 diabetes.

With Noom DPP, you get:

- CDC-approved lifestyle curriculum proven to help prevent or delay type 2 diabetes.
- Bite-size daily lessons that explain the “why” behind food, habits, and behavior.
- Smart tools like food and activity tracking to support real-life choices.
- One-on-one support from a certified diabetes prevention coach.
- A supportive peer community for encouragement and accountability.

How do you access Noom DPP?

- Noom DPP is accessed through the Noom: Weight Management experience.
- If you are clinically eligible, you will be enrolled specifically into Noom DPP.

Getting Started Is Easy

- 1 Download the My Highmark app or visit MyHighmark.com.
- 2 Go to Benefits – Additional Benefits.
- 3 Select Noom: Weight Management.
- 4 Determine your clinical eligibility through a short assessment to begin your Noom DPP journey.
